

LIECHTENSTEIN

More innovative than you might think

Corporate success stories

The Hilti Group, whose trademark is the red toolbox, supplies the construction industry worldwide with leading products, software and services.

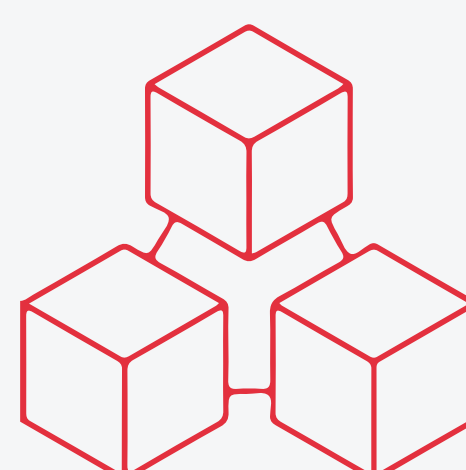

Hoval's heating and ventilation products are not only found in famous buildings, but also in numerous households around the world.

Every second, people around the world are treated with dental products from Ivoclar.

Every sixth frozen pizza that is sold in Germany is produced by the Ospelt Group at its Apolda site in the German province of Thüringen.

With its banks, trust companies, asset managers, funds and insurance companies, Liechtenstein today has an internationally renowned financial centre that successfully combines long-term thinking as well as innovation.

